

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE
GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day at the federal, state, county, and city levels; these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation operating and ensures citizens receive quality services; and

WHEREAS, the tireless efforts of these dedicated public servants have been key and critical during and in the wake the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, public employees take on not only a commitment to their jobs, but oaths of dedication to the people they serve; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, embassy employees, health care professionals, corrections officers, and others risk their lives each day in service to the people of Kansas, the United States, and around the world; and

WHEREAS, whether their job is in health care, public safety, education, transportation, economic development, or one of the other numerous areas of service provided by the State of Kansas or local municipalities, their work is vital; and

WHEREAS, each and every employee is a key component in achieving the mission of government operations in providing diverse, efficient, and quality services to the people of Kansas day in and day out; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in an everchanging democracy; and

WHEREAS, we owe heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to these dedicated employees and their continued commitment to excellence and integrity.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Laura Kelly, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim, May 1-5, 2023, as

Public Service Recognition Week

in the state of Kansas and I urge all citizens to join in this observation.

DONE: At the Capitol in Topeka under the Great Seal of the State this 28th day of April, A.D. 2023

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Laura Kelly

Scott Schuler

Secretary of State
Cheryl Stal

Assistant Secretary of State